THE TRANSCRIPT,

PUBLISHED EVERY PRIDAY. WILBUR P. DAVIS, Editor and Pro-

prictor. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION :

Finy Cents a year will be added when payment is delayed beyond six months. No paper discontinued until all arrearages are publicacept at the option of the Publisher.

RATES OF ADVERTISING !

TRESHEST ADVERTISEMENTS.—Per square of 12 mes or less, of this type, for first insertion $1, or each subsequent insertion, 25 ecents.

Distributionents, or they will be continued mill systements, or they will be continued mill systements to mill systements.

sF A liberal discount will be made on the LEGAL NOTICES will be inserted at 15 cents per

St. Albans Business Directory.

Mers' pay, Ac.

an shield he may be entrusted. St Albans, Nov. 4, 1964.

W. B. M. GOWAN, DENTIST, Office St. Allans, Vi. 2-1f

CHANTS.

CHANTS.

CHANTS.

CHANTS.

CHANTS.

Corner Lake and Main streets.

St. Albans, March 16, 1864.

1-1f

W.H. P. WALKER, dealer in Stoves and Tin Ware. Eave Troughs manufactured and put up to order, and the setting of Wood of Coal Furnaces promptly attended to. 102 Opposite Tremont House, St. Albans, Vt.

WYMAN & BUNTINGTON, dealers in

A . Produce at Wholesale and Retail WALKER BROS., Agts.
104 CHAPMAN, dealer in Grocories and

MARSHALL MASON, Dealer in Dry Goods, Yankee Notions, Zephyr Wools, Paper Escincs, Oil Shades, and Curtain Fixtures, 8 Albans, Vt. 104

G. Post & Co., dealers in Dry Goods, and choice Family Groceries. Corner of Statement Fairfield Streets, St. Albans, Vt. 117

PHYSICIANS and SURGEONS,

HAYING formed a professional co-partner-sup, offer their services to the community.

Office at Dr. CHANDLER'S.

Dr. Geo. L. Newcomb, ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN,

TER an absence of four months, Dr. N.

OF NEW YORK CITY.

H. L. SAMSON, Agent.

MPORTANT TO SOLDIERS THEIR WIDOWS.

doned that I am agent to transact all busiistining to pensions, bounties and back than of the above nature can be prehand their allowances obtained, by appyl WM. BRIDGES.

ST. ALBANS, VT., FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1866.

After Fifty Years.

BY MARY C. VAUGHAN.

We were children together. I don't know when I learned to love him. I think it could hardly be said that I

We shared joys and sports, wept difference, or warming him in the gra- the heach. cious light of my smiles, as smted my All this made a great change in my as if no winter storms were approachmood and purpose.

All this made a great change in my as if no winter storms were approachife. I strove to pattern after the ing. I thought I was but smoothing houses that dotted the barren region. than was good for me.

Were I to tell the exact truth, I axed to ahow me to forego any opporwould own that I always experienced tunity. I professed great indignation was nothing to shame them. And I meet. Forgery, I believe," was the he resisted my tyranny. Woman-na- any acts of mine, at the same time loved my husband. I strove honestly paddy, "why, Murphy told me it was or so on the southern portice of the whom the saints are on good terms, are well received and kindly enterreign, but she prefers, as a lover or a proof of his love.

husband, one who is manly and dom
I regretted all that I had said and former lover. I feit only regret and HERBERT BRAINERD, dealer is Fere inant. Yielding and weakness belong done very much, when John was snd- self-condemnation when I thought of minds; we must think; if we would of the President, I was included in of mirth and festivity. Dancing is not ble in the other. It is good fun, rare a position in the counting house of a learned he had removed to a distant we would have muscles, we must lathe portion. We had been out there it is cultivated to such an extent that sport, to tyrannize over one's lovers, wealthy distant relative in the city, city, and that there was little proba- bor; and these three—thought, love, a quarter of an hour, perhaps, when it becomes a passion.

DRS. J. L. CHANDLER & O. F. FASSETT of woman. All I wanted to say was, so kind, so gentle to my waywardness, with me, quietly advancing, as I was, begins to live earnestly, to yield rather And yet, not even for him, and this My parents had departed years be-> seem to yield. I was disposed always could safely trust such as he. I did life had left me with almost unimto have my own way, and would toler- not notice this letter, nor several oth- paired vigor, I found my chief solace ions touching the "full assurance of ate no objection from him.

forty different styles, adapted to sa. hamlet, and farther down the intie bay assert at whose mouth it stood, there was a So I went on in my mad course till the coming of death.

ly affected by it were that of John's when they were gone.

father and my own.

mented him, freezing him with my in- summer we went back to our cabin on him pleasure, and I read to him, and us beekon us to join them. Our love

It is a mistake to suppose that there ladies I saw at the hotel. I was his short path to the grave, are coquettes only in the higher walks ashamed of myself, in a fierce way, till I lived in a sort of lethangy that the artificial modes of society. We yet enjoyed. As the eldest, John first that with which he was about to con-knew only the ruder and simpler forms profited by this determination, and for neet himself. WESD & DUREN. Druggists and yet I was a coquette, and several winters he pursued his studies. I resolved and I triumphed. I know best passenged from the Postering of the Poster devotee of society ever inflicted or also enlarged his views of life, and could deny nothing to the dying His Street, St. Albans, Vt.

H. LEWIS. JR., & CO., Dealers
N. In Fancy and Staple Dry Goods. Bank
S. H. LEWIS. Jr.
A O. BRAINERD!

There are some natures with whom some social advantages which he did them as the wife of Gerald.

Forty years later he was still with
The point of foundering, being de-John had resisted, or stood upon his I was a little shamed in the presence expectation, his health had experi- down, replied that he had no wish to and womanhood, the chains were but ter point, and would that I had then we returned to our native country. that he is wiser to-day than he was "guilty of gross disrespect to you as a during the evening to the corral, and JAMES STONE, GROCER, Safford Block, riveted more firmly. I became more acted more in accordance with the real The Horton family, who had come to yesterday. TARRAR BROTHERS, IRON MER. It was but seldom that I did not find was flattered by the half-patronizing comed me with open arms. Travel, myself victor in any difference of plan homage I received, and the habit of rending, association with refined that man was hanged for the other. I saw the general was at a Saturday by prevails. Appearances are main-but it is a sort of recreation that one who was now, in their day of prosper- bility that we should meet again. Fine Watches, Clocks and Jewelry, Stetiulver and Silver Plated Ware. Fancy Goods variety, Watch Repairing and EngravSt. Albans, Vr.

Liver board in these later years of the first time that we had been separatLiver board in these later years of the first time that we had been separat
The shadows that had passed ity, willing to acknowledge and patrouize the Lowry family. This was athwart my early life had saddened.

Liver board in these later years of the first time that we had been separat
The shadows that had passed ity, willing to acknowledge and patrouize the Lowry family. This was athwart my early life had saddened. I have heard, in these later years, of the first time that we had been separat- me. My husband was grave and reticertain women, who, with great ver- ed for more than a few weeks or cent, and we lived a quiet, serene life. bosity and perseverance, demand what months at a time, and I felt very much His love for me never waned. It was they are pleased to name the rights of saddened at the thought of parting, tender, and grateful. Undemonstratheir sex. I know that I shall be With my usual perversity, however, tive himself, be did not expect effusion deemed heretical by these in what I I pretended to think lightly of it, and from me, and I do not believe an unsay, but I have lived a long life, in refused to bind myself to any promis- satisfied doubt over crossed his mind, which circumstances have made me es to refrain from flirting with strang- He knew my early love, but I believe thoughtful and observant. I believe ers. I told John that I chose to be free he thought I had forgotten and out-Brainerd & spear, dealers in Fancy and Demostic Dry Goods, plain and fancy though I would not for one instant upto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to many to be the dominant sex, and till I was married, and that if he preto many to many fully attracted me, and the memory of my side.

It came to pass, in the course of the But I walked an I sailed with Aylmer be far away.

after the changes I have recorded, it there, and a few young men who meet and clasp bands once more on was understood in the neighborhood loved the sea too well to leave it earth. that Robert Lowry was a prosperous while the pleasant weather lasted. He came at last. Truly, I had no man, with a fair prospect of becoming. We entertained them as well as we thought of reviving now, amidst the according to our simple ideas, a rich could, and I, grows subdued and frosts of age, the tender blossom of The those receiving the paper through the Postobserving the paper through the Postobserving the paper through the Postobserving the paper by the carrier, 50 cents in observing the paper by the carrier, 50 cents in observing the paper by the carrier, 50 cents in observing the paper by the carrier, 50 cents in observing the paper by the carrier, 50 cents in observing the paper through the Postlove him seemed antural, a part of life, regetables, and my father got his full a young invalid gentleman, who with ling of our lives would lighten; and, share of the profits of this trade. He his mother and sisters, was investigated. There was sale for fish as well as for ticed by our guests. Among them was the years of loneliness that the mingshare of the profits of this trade. He his mother and sisters, was linguring listening to his dear voice, I learned had boats to let, also, and was himself for the benefit afforded him by the again the lesson never quite forgot together over the loss of our pets, a skilful boatman, and at the close of sea air. I never knew how or when There are those who jest at our late which John helped me bury. We at the first season he was employed to I discovered that Gerald Horton loved vows, forgetting that love is perennial. tended the same school, studied from take charge of the property, and of- me; but, after a time, I seemed to To me there is something inexpressithe same books, and read the same ele- fered free ter ancy of as many rooms know it, and to feel that his friends by solemn and joyful in the thought gant essays from the English Reader, as he desired in the great, described encouraged me near him, just as we that we have joined hands now upon with the same high pitched Irawl. building. From this time forth, we give the dying any luxures they re- the brink of the dark waters, and that John was my devoted slave, and I, lived more than half the year at the quire, however burtful they might be each shall support the other's tetterincipient coquette from my carliest hotel, and all late goers and early com- deemed if there were hope of life ing feet as we pass across to the great of society, or that coquetry is the out. I had learned to modulate my voice, to was not to last. Then make came, one Banky & Davis, Afformery and growth of advanced civilization. The take great care of my hair and com- day that John Lowry was about to be truth is, that it is a natural instinct with most women, and is often developed by white & Sowles, Gadcomb's Building, with most women, and is often developed even in childhood, as in my case.

There were often with us, in the pleas
There were often with us, in the pleas
There were often with us, in the pleasour half barren sand farms, and only in coming thither departed with the fury. One firm resolve came out of subsisting by this union of marine and gay crowd, but better examples and the dreadful tumult and conflict I en-

S. Albans, Nov. 4, 1864.

If the year, in the old brown schoolhouse was often treated as a humble com- I did not love Gerald Horton, in).

P. A. SOWLES, Attorney and Connection at which stood among the sand knolls panion by those wealthy and refined though I felt for him the deepest Office over half a mile from the sea. To this people, and, alas! I had more atten- compassion and kindness: I knew he Begins the Chicago State of the Country to Soldiers, Wislow's and Invalid's shore, and from the scattered farmgentlemen who frequented the place, cept him. His death could not long state of the country to Soldiers, Wislow's and Invalid's shore, and from the scattered farmgentlemen who frequented the place, cept him. His death could not long the country to the be delayed, I thought, and then I GILMAN, DENTIST. Office in the John Lawry was a farmer's son, and I Since Mr. Lowry had been prosper- should be free once more, having LA KINGMAN BLOCK, Main St., opposite the base of the b homespun and went barefooted. Of give his children more advantages in me, while I should share the position course we were not learned in any of the way of education than they had of the Horton family, much above

Horgaton's First National Owster House.

Library Strest National Owster House.

Library Strest National Owster House.

Own rights, I should have yielded of my fine associates by John's rustic enced a favorable change the winter following our marriage. We spent ways, while he was by no means following our marriage. We spent ways, while he was to see me the recipient of attentions from the idlers.

As we advanced toward manhood described that time he was fully rustored, and which is but saying in other words.

J. Burgers, dealer in Pork, Fish, Hams, Land, Floor, Sait, and general Greeceries, about John and myself, nothing was could break. Always when I thought change in my mode of life. An unfarther from my thoughts than to be that he was mine, a warm feeling of the past had a charm which nothing could break. Always when I thought that he was mine, a warm feeling of
that he was mine, a warm feeling of
that he was mine, a warm feeling of the past had a charm which nothing
the past had a charm which no ance at the cove, than I flirted with reached my allotted three score and ships are filled by Jews. Por osly a prew DAYS can you dispose of your Missisquoi Bank bills to H. L. SamJohn most in his moments of resisMay loth, 1866.

As I have said, I always respected him as much as ever.

John wrote me begging me to beflected that a very brief time must ware of him, and told me that no girl close the scene, and though my calm ware of him, and told me that no girl close the scene, and though my calm the hotel. Altogether, immediately hotel. There were two city families ly of me, and that we might perchance rowed him over the soft waves, placed has its fruition late but full.

feet lighting trim.

per What two counties in Ireland

National Bank, St. Albane, Vt. and prosecute of learning, people tion from the masculine portion of would propose to me on the slightest a bed? When he slept with his four cane, with a sudden sweep of the arm from one so high in the priesthood.

I think he had a cane—he exclaimed He had better give it to him than to candle? Because he sometimes goes sprang away, and the general passed could get the means left the territory. out at night when he ought not to.

As we advanced toward manhood We had many words upon this lat- that time he was fully restored, and which is but saying in other words, were I to tell the exact truth, I fixed to allow me to forego any opport traces of my homely origin, and there whom he happened to White House grounds by the Marine tained, somewhat, by paying more re-have faithful hearts, we must love; if the invitation to accompany him to only a favorite amusement, it is more; labor—include all that is valuable in one of the servants came to say that life.

Brigham's women, though better clothed than formerly, still work very was immediately cast out. A gentleman, well known in hold in him the defrauding of woman ings I would withdraw my pledges to pairs are more serenely happy than the metropolis, was always complainin her motherhood, her property, or the emoluments of labor. I do not active models and the emoluments of labor. I do not active models are supported in the forty-first year of our marriage, ing very wearied by these endless any rights which she has not the capa- saw much in his character that power- Gerald was suddenly removed from grumblings, and being a bit of a wag, replied: "Well, my dear fellow, if I that I believe a woman respects a self- with such a reserved power in him, so to a serene old age. Fifteen calm propose to build a large and expenasserting man more than a timid one, handsome, too, and so proud of me! and peaceful years passed, and then sive college for the education of their and really prefers, at least when she Others flattered me, he alone loved. she, too, died, and I was left alone. young men. In England, for many years, great attention has been paid than to reign. If she reigns, she de- true love of him, would I refrain from fore. I knew not that my blood red- by the Jews to education, and their Residence of Dr. Passett, at the Welden House.

O. F. FASSETT.

Albans, Sept. 26th, 1865.

Sires rather that it shall be through my coquettish ways. No sooner did dened the veins of any creature. The students hold prominent places in Aylmer Barton again make his appearance of the colleges. Many professorthe affections than as a matter of Aylmer Barton again make his appear- desolation of age fell upon me. That some of the colleges. Many professor- true gentleman of that time sleeps far

Faith and Works.

A person who had peculiar opiners that followed in the same strain. in the thought that death could not faith," having occasion to cross a fer-A list returned to his Rooms at the Tremont years, that a railroad approached the place. Office hours from 9 to 12 A. M., and like to 15 and 7 to 9 P. M. Advice free.

Like an absence of four months, Dr. N.

It came to pass, in the course of the opportunity years, that a railroad approached the sea not far from our hamlet, and this sea not far from our hamlet, and this sea not far from our hamlet, and this brought, especially in the summer rich, and handsome, and fashionable. The bells at the cove were wild for his time, an influx of strangers into our to the pass, in the course of The MASON & HAMLIN CABINET OR- neighborhood. Half a mile from our smiles, cheap enough for me, the poor to me one day that roused me to life, he had always entertained a different p of Connecticut was not re- but two of the original members in achamlet, and farther down the little bay lisher's daughter, whom they scorned. and left me no longer anxious for the notion on the subject, and begged to muse, for 80 to solve seem at whose models, or 80 to solve seem at whose models at whose models at the solve seem at whose models at whose models at the solve seem at whose models at the solve seem at whose models at whose models at the whose models at whose models at whose models at the whose models at whose models at whose models at the whose models fine flat beach lying along a sheltered result I might have expected came. I heard from John. He was living, "Let us suppose," said the ferryman, ing. Some speculator or company ther silence, allow the fair name of his knew me well, had cordially inquired and the other works, and try their ment, Mr. S. made a point which two never received a scratch during erected at this place a large hotel, betrothed to be mingled with that of for me, and sent me many kindly several merits." Accordingly, throwwhich, closed and comfortless many one so dissolute. He remonstrated, messages. He, too, had been left ing down one oar in the boat, he pro- Sherman, I would thank you to state our battles as all know who know any-FIRE INSURANCE CO. months of their year, was soon a crow- he reproached, and finally he demanded the point so that I can understand thing of the old 2d regiment, and esded resort during the summers.

The building of this hotel caused of the little cold belief and the little cold belief of the little cold belief the little apital and Surplus, $555,133 86 great changes in our neighborhood, and the little gold betrothal ring I among whom he lived respected and he, "you perceive faith won't do; let or is probably not aware of the task you but the two families which were most- wore, and almost wept my heart away beloved, in a hale happy age. More us try if works can." Seizing the oth- are imposing upon me." than fifty years had he spent with the er oar, and giving it the same trial, the A few days later Aylmer Barton wife he married after I had jilted him same consequences ensued. "Works." For "You have lost you baby, I fell from the ladder, and it was sup-I have said that Mr. Lowry was a met me on the beach, and spoke to —they had celebrated their golden said he, "you see, don't do either; let hear," said one gentleman to another, me words I could not brook. I drove wedding scarce a year before her us try them together." The result "Yes, poor little thing! We did all mediately after the fall a young man turist of rare judgment for those parts. him from me and never spoke to him death. She had been a good wife and was successful; the boat shot through we could for it. We had four doc- ran to the store to inform the painter No farm in the county was more pro- again. I only remember the remain- mother, and was sincerely mourned, the wastered poultices all over it, of the misfortune that had overtaken No farm in the county was more proagain. I only remember the remainmother, and was sincerely mourned, the waves and soon renew of the wished to a farm in the county was more productive, and he now found a ready der of that summer as a dreary blank. I heard all these things with interest, for haven. "This," said the honest blistered its bead and feet, gave it his workman. The "bos" listened to and profitable market for whatever he of unbroken loneliness and sadness. I know not why, but they brought a ferryman, "is the way by which I hope nine calomel powders, leeched its temhad to sell, while his neat farmhouse of the other passion still strong in the other opened its doors to accommodate guests who could not obtain rooms at guest timid, was much caressed and no- our youthful love. But he told me of an unjust rebuke is not, perhaps, as which the Prophet's wives spend their well known to the public as it should time:

Scott's Peculiarities.

be. I was witness, accidentally, to "The internal arrangement of affairs recollection, tyrannized over and tor- ers were entertained by us. In the But, even so, I was pleased to give Beyond, where those ones nearest to paused to see him. Kind enough at are all under the control of the stewheart, and thoughtful of his troops ardess. when in service, he permitted no undue familiarity on the part of his ready the bell rings, and each woman, Austria has 600,000 men in per-vance on all occasions of his rank and flies down to the dinner-table. well enough, and were not likely to attend to, and get ready for breakfast;
When rain falls, does it ever get offend in this regard. His peculiarithis over she commences the business up again?-Of course it does, in dew ties were very little known, however, of the day, arranges her rooms, and the building in which headquarters as the case may be. M. Sewing machine is brought into by the sea, subsisting partly on our ger by the sea, subsisting partly by the cultivation of more fashionable set, whose sole object that roused me almost to the pitch of valuable enterprise. The state of the s > in a weighty voice, "Clear out, sir- ask pay of him." The poor man nev-Why is a married man like a clear out!" The astonished orderly er received his money, and soon as he to his carriage and was driven off. This is the manner in which the Sail a crazy woman of a stingy orderly on duty at the office, and the of his property. Most of the women man -"Do you see that man? You other slowly walked on. The car- spin and make their everyday clothnate orderly. He, of course, met it ment every year. All work hard, and Der An Irishman on board a vessel with hat in hand, and fear in every take but very little out-of-door exerquivering muscle. He was beckened cise. Parties and the theatre are the to the door, and the general asked his favorite amusements. At the theatre, name and regiment-as he told two Brigham and one or two of the faor three of us immediately afterwards, vored wives sit together in the 'King's He gave both, and the general an- box,' but the remainder of the women swered, "Well, sir, report to your col- and the children sit in what is called "disrespect to General Scott as an quette, about the center of the area.

Executive Mansion during these con- are well received and kindly entercerts. Happening to be there on this tained at these parties, and all join in Les If we would have powerful afternoon, with some Illinois friends giving themselves up to the influences their plaudits. "You've got a good should be slaves.
many young generals, Mr. Lincoln, A music-master, a dancing-master but they don't forget the old general and a teacher of the ordinary yet, do they?"-with a motion toward branches of an English education, are the people, and a decided emphasis on employed in the family school. Also tion over and over in his mind. "We have much better advantages than than we could him," answered Mr. and music are the leading accomplish-Lincoln, as he supported him to a ments and everything else is made chair. 'I thank you, Mr. President- subordinate to these.' I thank you," said the general, in conclusion. Were there tears in his eyes? At least there were in the of Rev. Timothy Edwards, preached stood near. away in the prairie home he loved so show the searcity of paper in those well, and to-day the republic lays in his grave the "foremost captain of his printed paper are found, which are time"-the loyal soldier "who never sold the truth to rave the hour. "And while the races of mankind endure Let his great example stand,

Colossal, seen of every land,
And keep the sofdier from the statesman pure,
Till in all lands and, three all human story,
The path of duty be the way to glory,

- Wash. Cov. Buston Advertiser.

markable for quickness of apprehen- tive service at the end of the rebellion. sion. At a certain time, Hon. W. R. These two were 2d Sergeant F. A. Sherman was arguing a case before Fish, of Jamaica, now of Ludlow, and him, and in the course of his argu- A. S. Whitcomb, of Ludlow. These

How Brigham Young's Wives Live.

That General Scott was of hasty and From Mrs. Waite's very interesting irascible temper in these latter years work on the Mormons, just issued by no one knew better than himself. That Hurd and Hongiston, we take the folhe was as ready to recall as to atter lowing description of the manner in an incident illustrative alike of his at the Harem is very similar to that impatient spirit and real gentleman- of a young ladies' boarding school. hood. It occurred while he was yet Each woman having her own room, commander-in-chief, though I cannot her affairs are all centered there. The now fix the exact time. His office culinary department is under the conwas on Seventeenth street, opposite trol of such of the wives as Brigham the War Department. His carriage from time to time appoints. She is stood at the door one afternoon as I the stewardess, and carries the keys. passed, and discovering at the instant | A cook is employed-generally a man that he was coming out for a ride, I -and several servants besides, who soldiers, and required proper obser- with her children, if she have any, position. The regulars knew this Each, on rising, has her children to to the volunteers. As he came out of sits down to her sewing or other work,

War Department, which he had been those who want a sewing machine, it directed to deliver to Gen. Scott at may be well to state how this one was seemed dumbfounded for just one or the same result. One of the wives betwo seconds, and then, straightening came quite indignant, and said: If I When did Moses sleep five in to his fall height, and raising his was in his place, I never would ask it -I think he had a cane-he exclaimed He had better give it to him than to The latter was taken charge of by the Prophet becomes possessed of much 'onel that you were guilty of gross 'Brigham's corral.' This is in the par-

President immediately went to meet hard. They are infatuated with their "Can you do all sorts of casting him, and directly returned with the religion, and devoted to their hushere?" said a solemn looking chap at lieutenant-general leaning on his arm. band. If they cannot obtain his love the Iron Works the other day. "Yes," It was a sight worth something to see. they content themselves with his said Frank, preparing to take his or- The crowd in front of the house saw kindness, and endeavor to think themder; "all sorts." "Well, then," re- it, was hushed in reverence a moment, selves happy. As religion is their onturned the solemn inquirer, "I would and then broke out into a hearty clap-like to have you cast a shadow." He ping of hands. The general stepped only object. If it does not elevate to the front and raised his chappean their minds, it deadens their susceptiin acknowledgment. At this instant bilities, and as they are not permitted the band struck up "Hail to the to be women, they try to convince Chief," while the people continued themselves that it is God's will they 'don't," as if he had turned the ques- a teacher of French. His children could spare a hundred of them better any other in the territory. Dancing eyes of several of the persons who in East Windsor, Connecticut, one hundred and fifty years ago, are still And now the dear President and preserved. He was the father of Jonathan Edwards. The sermons days. In some of them, scraps of compactly filled on the margin with writing. The writing is so fine and close that it is difficult to read it without a magnifying glass.

The Bellows Falls Times says: "In the company formed in Ludlow, which went out in the 2d Ver-A SEVERE TASK .- The late Judge mont regiment in 1861, there were